

First series of Stakeholder Workshops
Theme: Changing the paradigm for wastewater reuse
20 June 2020, Doctoral School of Science and Technology, Tripoli

Agenda

08:30 – 09:00 am Registration

09:00 – 11:00 am Introductory and Roundtable session

- The ENI CBC Mediterranean Sea Basin Programme
 - The importance of reuse of treated effluent in water scarce regions
 - Invited talk: NAWAMED project
 - Scope of AQUACYCLE & Role of partners in project
 - Outcomes from desk reviews, stakeholder interviews & SWOT analysis
- Roundtable: Challenges faced to increase the reuse of treated effluent

Coffee break

11:30 – 13:00 am The APOC Technology and Roundtable session

- Design & development of an eco-innovative & cost-effective domestic wastewater treatment technology
- The 3 demonstration units of the APOC technology
- APOC Technical Guides
- Planned Training Events on the APOC technology

Roundtable: expectations and training needs on the APOC technology

Light lunch

14:00 – 15:30 pm AQUACYCLE WebGIS and Brainstorming session

- Prototype design of online decision support tool

Brainstorming: Feedback and contributions to the online platform

Conclusions from Workshop

 www.enicbcmed.eu/projects/aquacycle  @AquaCycle_ENI

 @AQUACYCLE.ENI.CBCMED  @AquaCycle ENI CBC Med

CERTH
CENTRE FOR RESEARCH & TECHNOLOGY
HELLAS

