

Fair employment in the Mediterranean area, a key element to advance social justice

Webinar to celebrate United Nations' World Day of Social Justice

Monday 22nd February 2021, 11 am to 1 pm (CET) via WEBEX

(<https://bit.ly/3aJyrFE>)

Moderator: Joumana Sweiss, officer, ENI CBC Med Branch Office for the Western Mediterranean

Speakers:

Daríá Terrádez Salom, general director of EU relations, Generalitat Valenciana, Spain
Introduction on how social justice can be achieved in the Mediterranean area

Tariq Haq, Senior Employment Policy Specialist at International Labour Organisation (ILO)
Facts and figures about employment, labour markets and social justice in the Mediterranean area

José M. Ruibérriz, Assamblea de Cooperación por la Paz (ACCP), team member of MedTOWN project and ACPP Focal Point for Social and Solidarity Economy, Spain
Co-producing social policies to increase social justice in the Mediterranean: pilot actions from MedTOWN

Wafaa Haidamous, BCTS Lebanon, partner in MoreThanAJob project
Support of social and solidarity economy actors to the unemployed and uneducated: experience from the private sector in the Middle East

Mathieu Guary, Coopérative d'Activité et d'Emploi Petra Patrimonia, coordinator of RESMYLE project, France
Tools to support professional and social integration of young people in the Mediterranean

Martin Heibel, communication manager, ENI CBC Med Programme
What's next? Perspectives for the 2021-2027 EU programming period

Wrap-up session: summary of speakers' main ideas and conclusions by Lassaad Messaadi, ENI CBC Med senior expert in social inclusion and fight against poverty